

Climate and Health Expert Advisory Group

Commuque of outcomes from meeting held on 12 December 2025

16 January 2026

Overview

The third meeting of the Australian Government's Climate and Health Expert Advisory Group (CHEAG) was held on 12 December 2025. The meeting was chaired by the Hon Rebecca White MP, Assistant Minister for Health and Aged Care, Assistant Minister for Indigenous Health and Assistant Minister for Women.

CHEAG was established to support the implementation of the National Health and Climate Strategy (the Strategy) by providing expert climate and health advice to the Australian Government.

At the meeting:

1. The new Chair acknowledged the leadership of the Hon Ged Kearney MP, former Assistant Minister for Health and Aged Care and previous chair of CHEAG.
2. Members received an update on implementation of the Strategy. Significant progress has been made, with 19 of the 49 actions now 'complete' or 'substantially complete'.
3. Ms Mary Wood, Head of the interim Australian Centre for Disease Control (iCDC), provided members with an update on the transition to an independent Australian CDC from 1 January 2026. This includes work by the Australian CDC to bring together information, data and advice from across the country.
4. Conjoint Professor Carolyn Hullick, Chief Medical Officer of the Australian Commission on Safety and Quality in Health Care, provided an update on initiatives by the Commission, including the Healthcare Sustainability and Resilience Module, and the incorporation of sustainability in the:
 - new national clinical governance model
 - new Clinical Care Standards
 - 3rd edition of the National Safety and Quality Health Service Standards
 - Framework for Collaborative Action on Climate and Health (including 26 health profession colleges).
5. Dr Dawn Casey PSM, Deputy CEO of the National Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Organisation (NACCHO), outlined a process for co-designing First Nations health and climate policy between the Australian Government and First Nations stakeholders.
6. Members received an update on the work to bring a health focus to COP31 through the joint hosting agreement between Türkiye and Australia.
